NOT GOOD FIGHTERS

Cubans Are Brave Enough But Not Disciplined.

AMERICANS WILL FIND THEM OF SLIGHT ASSISTANCE.

New York, June 16—Special—A letter received here from an American officer in eastern Cuba pays a high compliment to the bravery of the Cuban insurgents, but says they make poor soldiers. They are intractable, and seem fitted only for guerrilla modes of warfare. They will not stand before an enemy's fire as the Americans do, but break and run or cover, doing their fighting chiefly from ambush. The writer doubts their value as allies and says the Americans will be wise if they place no dependence upon the Cubans.

Germany's Absurd Claims.

Washington, June 16—Special—Germany's attitude in the Philippines is still the subject of much discussion here. The pretense that the interests of German citizens are in jeopardy at the hands of the Americans at Manila is ridiculed. The fact is that Admiral Dewey has taken every possible precaution to protect all foreign residents alike. All other nations are perfectly satisfied; Germany alone regards the interests of her citizens endangered. There is not the slightest ground for the German solicitude. German interests in the Philippines will be guarded as jealously as those of any other nation, but will receive no greater consideration. The German complaint is due, it is believed here, to a desire on the part of the emperor to secure control in the islands after Spain's power shall have been ended. This will not be permitted by the American government.

To Be Permanently Occupied.

Washington, June 16—Special—A brief dispatch from Kingston states that the American occupation of Guantanamo will be permanent. It is found that it can be held with a small force, and that it is an excellent strategic point for both the army and navy. The harbor will afford a refuge for our ships in times of storms, while it can be made the base of military movements in all directions. The weakness of the Spanish force there indicates that a concentration has been taking place at Havana, Santiago, and other beleaguered ports.

A Wise Precaution.

Washington, June 16—Special—Orders have been given the commander of the Red Cross ship Solace to keep away from Spanish warships should they be sighted. The authorities believe that in view of the recent mutilating of the remains of our marines the Spaniards will fire on the Solace should they get a chance.

Planning an Attack.

Off Guantanamo, June 16—Special—Grave fears are entertained of an attack by the Spanish in force. All day yesterday the Spanish gunboat ferried troops across about three miles up the bay. A Cuban scout reports that Spanish soldiers are being shipped by train from Santiago to this point.

Found No Hostile Vessels.

Key West, June 16—Special—The Indiana, Detroit, Wampatuck, Manning and Eagle, which have been on a reconnaissance expedition to ascertain the correctness of the report of Spanish ships in these waters, have returned satisfied that the report was incorrect.

Cadiz Fears Attack.

Cadiz, June 16—Special—There is great excitement here over fears that the American warships are coming to Spain. Reinforcements will be sent to several of the Spanish dependencies.

Deserted to the Enemy.

Key West, June 16—Special—The Cuban Junta here says the entire Spanish garrison at Puerto Principe has deserted and joined the insurgents. The Cubans are besieging the place.

A Lively Bombardment.

Camp McCalla, June 16—Special—La Ciamnera, across Guantanamo Bay, was bombarded yesterday. The Spaniards only fired a half dozen shots, and then fled. The brick fort was knocked over by the shells from the American warships. Shells were also dropped into the thickets in which the Spaniards were supposed to be lurking.

Will Not Capitulate.

Madrid, June 16—Special—Manila advices say the churches and convents there have been converted into hospitals, and are filled with wounded Spaniards; the victims of constant skirmishes with the insurgents. The Jesuits and nuns have fled. Manila is not likely to capitulate, it is said, until the American troops arrive.

Hobson's Exchange.

Madrid, June 16—Special—The government has authorized Gen. Blanco to exchange Hobson and his companions for a corresponding number of prisoners captured aboard the Argonauta.

Critical For the Dons.

Madrid, June 16—Special—News from Manila shows the situation there more critical than previously reported. News that the city has fallen is expected momentarily.

Cables Are Cut.

Madrid, June 16—Special—The war minister announces that telegraphic communication with Santiago and Guantanamo has been broken.

NEGRO HANGED TODAY

Kentucky Is Again the Scene of Mob Violence Towards a Negro Ravisher

Glasgow, Ky., June 16—[Special]—A negro, Caleb Gaines, was hanged here this morning by a mob for outraging a little white girl.

Miss Fannie Jackson Attends the Alumnae Meeting at Rockford

The program of toasts was followed by the election of officers. Rockford college is looking forward to celebrating next year the 50th anniversary of the founding of Rockford seminary.

Sampson Gives the Spaniards at Santiago No Rest.

KNOCKING THE FORTS TO PIECES AT HIS LEISURE.

Washington, June 16—Special—There has been a good deal of desultory but effective work done by Sampson's fleet during the week. Every day some slight advantage has been gained in the destruction or crippling of the forts guarding Santiago bay. Many of these have been completely dismantled, and all have suffered more or less injury. This practice has been of value in increasing the efficiency of the gunners, who are now regarded as the most expert in the world. Every day the Spanish position is becoming weaker, and when the final attack is made by the combined land and naval forces Cervera's fleet will fall an easy prey to the American arms. Sampson's attacks are conducted systematically, and his persistence is worrying the Spaniards greatly.

Spain's Useless Fleets.

London, June 16—Special—Military and naval experts are marveling at the incapacity displayed by Spanish commanders, which has resulted in the practical destruction of one of the finest navies in the world. Cervera's conduct in bottling himself up in Santiago bay is inexplicable save on the hypothesis of treason or incapacity. He can scarcely be charged with the former. The abandonment of the Cadiz fleet is not due to Camera's bad management, but to the financial distress of the government. There is no money to fit it out for sea, and consequently it is useless. Dewey's bold stroke at Manila disposed of many of the most formidable vessels in Spain's navy. The three combined have left the nation powerless to defend itself or to command the respect of other nations.

Admits Heavy Losses.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 16—Special—A Havana paper has just reached here containing an account of the bombardment of Santiago, June 6. It admits that forty-two men and one officer were killed in Morro Castle, and four officers and twenty-one men wounded. One naval officer and four sailors were also killed, and twenty others on the ships wounded.

The Ladrones Not Occupied.

Washington, June 16—Special—It is stated that the first expedition to the Philippines did not stop at the Ladrones. In case the islands are to be occupied, it is believed the work will fall to the third expedition, which will leave at the end of the month under command of Gen. Merritt.

The Fleet is Moving.

Tampa, June 17—Special—At a late hour last night an arriving vessel reported sighting the American transport fleet twenty miles south of the entrance to Tampa Bay. A formation had been effected, and the fleet was steaming slowly southward.

For Porto Rico.

Washington, June 16—Special—Twenty thousand troops are to be assembled as quickly as possible at Fernandina, Fla., and be established close to the ocean. The troops are destined for the Porto Rico expedition.

Not Intended as a Menace.

Berlin, June 16—Special—A semi-official note says the assembling of the German fleet at Manila is not intended as a menace, but is being done to protect German interests there.

May Carry the War Into Spain.

Washington, June 16—Special—There is gossip here of plans to carry the war into Spain by sending a fleet to bombard Ferrol and Cadiz to bring the Spaniards to their senses.

Sailed From Cadiz.

Gibraltar, June 16—Special—The Spanish cruiser Cindad Cadiz has sailed from Cadiz under sealed orders.

No More Troops Needed.

Washington, June 16—Special—It is officially stated that there will be no further call for volunteers for the present.

ALL THE NEWS OF
THE BADGER STATECORNER STONE OF GREEN BAY
REFORMATORY TO BE LAID.

That Ambitious Town Wants a Sitting of the Federal Court—Masonic Grand Officers Elected—Suicide of a Crimean War Veteran—Watrous as Paymaster.

Elaborate arrangements for the laying of the corner stone of the intermediate reformatory at Green Bay next Thursday are being made by Superintendent J. E. Heg. Invitations are being sent to all state officers and members of the legislature and a big gathering of officials is expected. The members of the State Board of Control were in the city yesterday. They purchased two new carriages for the Home for Feeble Minded at Chippewa Falls to cost $150.

A PATRIOTIC DISPLAY.

Northwestern Railway Company Will Have Flags All Along the Line.

The officials of the Northwestern railway have decided to show their patriotism and to inspire their passengers by decorating their buildings everywhere along the three divisions of the road. The first flags were raised on the Milwaukee division. Sixteen beautiful national emblems are in place today between Chicago and Milwaukee, and the breeze is unfurling Old Glory and making the stations, with their towers, appear more like small fortresses than peaceful way-depots. It is stated that forty of the principal places in Illinois are supplied so far, and that as fast as possible the railway officials would place flags in every village or town having 500 or more inhabitants along the lines. There are about 100 such stations on the Milwaukee, Galena and Wisconsin divisions. On lines in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota, the stars and stripes will be placed as well, and this will make the purchase of a large number of flags necessary, for the 7,000 miles of road.

WANT A COURT ESTABLISHED.

Green Bay Trying to Secure a Sitting of the Federal Court.

Green Bay, Wis., June 16.—The Business Men's association, at a meeting last night, adopted resolutions to the effect that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions and present them to congress asking that a United States court be established in Green Bay.

This step has been taken for the reason that large amounts of marine and other business from here, that occupies the attention of the courts, has to go either to Milwaukee or Oshkosh, the nearest United States court. A great many members of the association are of the opinion that it would be hardly of any use for Green Bay to try and secure a United States court here until the city has a government building, but the matter will be laid before congress for action if possible.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE

Milwaukee, June 16.—At the annual communication of the Wisconsin Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

Deputy Grand Master—D. McL. Miller, of Oconomowoc.
Grand Senior Warden—O. E. Whelan, of Madison.

CRIMEAN WAR VETERAN.

He Dies of Wounds Self-Inflicted With Suicidal Intent.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., June 16.—A. Moses, one of the best-known Jewish residents of the Chippewa valley, died Tuesday night from the effects of a wound inflicted by himself while temporarily insane. Mr. Moses was born in Poland in 1832 and at 22 went to England where he joined a regiment, setting out for the Crimean war. He was made a sergeant and at the battle of Inkerman was seriously wounded. He came to this city about twenty years ago and up to the time of his death conducted a large variety store. He accumulated considerable wealth and was noted for many charitable deeds to the poor of the city. It is probable that his remains will be

WATROUS TO BE PAYMASTER
Will Receive the Appointment in a Few Days From the President

Washington, June 16.—The recent death of Col. Candee of the paymaster's department of the army creates a vacancy in that branch of the service and the expectation is that Watson will secure the place and that the name of Col. J. A. Watrous, of Milwaukee, will be sent to the senate in a few days. There have been reports here for some time that Col. Watrous was slated for a paymaster's appointment, but it was not expected to be made for several months. It is assumed that the place will be with the rank of major.

THEY HAD A GOOD TIME

Last Night's Entertainment at the Armory Not Large But Good

There was not a large attendance at the entertainment given at the Armory last evening in aid of the fund for the benefit of the Janesville soldiers in the field, but those present pronounced it a success in all other respects. Dr. J. B. Whiting was chosen to preside over the exercises preliminary to the dance, and accepted the honor in a few well chosen remarks.

Miss Carrie Baldwin rendered a piano solo in a highly artistic manner eliciting loud applause.

Mrs. O. H. Brand recited "In the Catacombs" in fine dramatic style.

Miss Etta Nott sang "Last Night" in a thoroughly enjoyable manner, Helen Gunderman playing the accompaniment.

Horace McElroy made a few remarks criticizing the government for its neglect of the comfort of soldiers in the field. He was followed by Miss Baldwin, who rendered an exquisite piano solo.

Dancing then began and was continued until a late hour.

LIEUT. WHITING ADVANCED

Now on Duty at General Lee's Second Division Hospital.

Lieutenant J. B. Whiting, Jr., assistant surgeon First Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, now at Jacksonville, Fla., has been transferred from his regiment to the division hospital of the second division of the Seventh Army Corps, by order of Colonel Maus, chief medical officer of Major General Fitzhugh Lee's command. Lieutenant Whiting now has charge of the more serious cases from the nine regiments composing the corps, the patients at the hospital being the ones who are too seriously ill to be properly cared for by the regimental surgeon.

CHARGED WITH CHASING BUGS

An Inebriated Stranger Indulged in the Pastime Last Night.

Officer Appleby arrested a well dressed stranger last evening at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, and the man spent the night in jail. At the bedside the prisoner was too drunk to give his name, and he was booked under the charge of "chasing bugs while intoxicated."

The many bugs that circle the electric light at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets cast their shadows on the ground, and it was their moving shadows that the prisoner was trying hard to corral when arrested.

At the graduating exercises a good sized delegation from here promise to be in attendance.

TO WITNESS THE MATCH

Janesville Will Be Well Represented At the Wrestling Match

A delegation of at least a dozen local men will be at the ring-side in Chicago Monday evening when Evan Lewis and the Turk wrestle for the championship of the world.

The local party will leave on the early morning train Monday, and it is said they will back the Turk with a lot of ready cash.

The party from here will embrace an ex-preacher, who says that wrestling is a most "manly sport."

The Milwaukee Carnival.

LOCAL COMPANIES
MAY CONSOLIDATETHE AMERICAN AND UNITED STATES AS ONE CONCERN.

One Agent Would Handle All the Business Done Here—Officials Today Making Arrangement—Plan Will Be A Saving of Many Dollars in a Year.

A plan to consolidate the local American and United States express offices into one is now under consideration in this city. This includes that one agent will handle the business here and involves the doing away with extra clerks, drivers, as well as an office and many other incidentals. It would be a saving of a large expense that is now made necessary by the keeping open of two offices, but would also have the effect of throwing several hands here out of work.

Talked Over the Matter.

Route Agent Sterling, of the American Express company, arrived in the city today for the sole purpose of looking into the matter, and in consultation with Route Agent Boleford the matter was thoroughly gone over this morning in the local office of the United States Company. In case the plan is consummated—as it most likely will be—it will not mean the withdrawal from the local field of either one of the present companies. Both the United States and the American will continue business here, the former having the St. Paul road, the latter the Northwestern, this business to be done in one office by one force of clerks, drivers, and an agent where it now requires just double the force. Route Agent Sterling stated this morning that such a plan was being seriously contemplated, but that as yet no definite arrangements had been made, nor were there likely to be for some time to come.

THE BOYS IN GOOD CONDITION

Janesville Soldiers Have Plenty Of the Comforts of Life

Corporal E. D. Hall assures his Janesville friends that there need be no fear as to the condition of Co. A. The health of the Jacksonville camp is remarkably good, the food supply is ample, and the boys are contented and happy.

"Out of 9,000 men in camp there were only 120 in the hospital the day I came north," said Corporal Hall this morning. "Forty of these cases were wounds, from an Iowa regiment, and twenty-nine were mumps from a North Carolina regiment. Most of the other cases were of less than ordinary importance."

"The boys have found no chance to complain about the food supply since the first week. As soon as the commissary department was put in shape everything became satisfactory. Our rations are based on a ten days' schedule. Seven days out of the ten we get fresh beef, two days bacon, and one day canned salmon. We get coffee, sugar, potatoes, onions and cabbage, and each man is entitled to a pound and a quarter of bread daily. Nobody eats that much, of course, so every Sunday the surplus orders are traded in for pie or other delicacies."

Corporal Hall has taken the names of twenty-nine volunteers, since he reached Jacksonville, but he wants a few more to make up for any who may fail to pass the physical examination.

The present list of men recruited by Corporal Hall is mostly composed of Janesville boys, others being from Rock Prairie, Milton, Warner, and Milton Junction. The list has the following names:

E. M. Walsh, Ralph Inman, L. H. Buck, Charles Miller, L. J. Lowe, T. I. Lowe, F. Zuel, James D. Synnott, John Mosher, H. H. Balderson, F. A. Tilt, H. R. Ranger, Jacob Jarvis, G. T. Williams, W. J. Getts, Albert Swartz, Richard Linderman, J. H. Chapman, Charles Kingsley, John Keese, Michael Fladness.

CAME TO DEFEND A FORTUNE

Patsy Griffin Imbued Too Much and Got Into Trouble

Patsy Griffin, who has been in the soldiers' home at Milwaukee, arrived in town this week on what he terms a "strictly business mission." He was on deck here but a short time when he invested heavily in fire water and was jailed by Chief Hogan. In the municipal court this morning he stated that he had $8,000 coming from local parties; who, he said, were trying to cheat him out of this amount of money which he had to his credit before he went to the soldiers' home. He was allowed his freedom.

THE "CITY HOSPITAL."

The question of whether or not the city should provide hospital accommodations for emergency patients is not open to debate. Humanity demands that such steps be taken. Shame on the city that will not extend all help and comfort to the needy but worthy sick or maimed. Such charity is of the practical sort.

Some years ago, the people of Janesville clubbed together and opened a hospital in which charity patients were received and cared for. Who knows how much suffering was alleviated, and how many lives were saved as the result of this noble charity? How can the benefits of such an institution be estimated? This hospital is still open, but it is not the success that it once was. There are several reasons why this fact is true. Conditions are materially changed. The local physicians are not forced to depend upon one hospital now, but can send their patients either to Oak Lawn or the Palmer Memorial Hospital. The hospital favored by the physicians is naturally the one that will survive, while the one neglected by the physicians will naturally be compelled to close its doors.

Owing to the manner in which Oak Lawn hospital was founded and conducted—by work of the purest charity—much sentiment attaches to it, but the plain business proposition that confronts the management is "the institution is not self-supporting," sentiment naturally melts away before this plain reality. What the causes of the decline were make no difference. The fact remains that the hospital cannot be supported without material public aid. The city charter does not allow the city to contribute to the support of any private enterprise. Hence, the council cannot appropriate money to any hospital, although money has been so appropriated—unlawfully, however—in the past.

For this reason, the directors of the Oak Lawn hospital are in a dilemma. They do not want to close up an institution that has accomplished so much good, yet they realize that the institution cannot run without public aid.

In this extremity they have adopted the only course open to them, and offered the hospital to the city.

If the city accepts the gift, the council must face the same conditions that now confront the management—that the institution does not pay. The $500 per annum that the city formerly paid the hospital, kept the institution open, and a similar appropriation would accomplish the same purpose if the city owned and conducted the institution; provided that it was as well managed under city control as it has been in the past. The friends of the hospital insist that it would be as well managed, and that $500 per year will maintain it. Thus, they argue, that the city would assume no greater responsibility than was assumed when yearly financial aid was extended.

The opponents of the plan insist that the hospital would be a burden; that municipalities can never manage any enterprise as well as an individual does; and that to accept the offer would be bad policy.

Yet the city, although its duty is clear, cannot make a yearly appropriation to any hospital on condition that charity patients be cared for therein, and the system of paying the expenses of charity patients at a private hospital other than by a contract for a definite amount per annum, would be cumbersome, expensive, unsatisfactory, and even subject to abuse.

The question of what to do in the matter is not easily decided. That the city should provide hospital accommodations is clear. That such accommodations cannot be well provided at a private institution is equally clear. That the city should accept no additional financial burden unless the same are absolutely necessary is perfectly plain.

If the city accepted the offer, and placed the institution in charge of a competent and zealous board of trustees it could probably be run at as little cost to the citizens as was the case when an annual appropriation was made. But if the city accepts the offer, allows the institution to run itself, and makes the positions of matron, nurse, janitor, etc., the medium of political rewards, the expense would run into the thousands of dollars each year, and the service afforded would be correspondingly bad.

The citizens appear to be willing to pay $500 per year to the hospital, and if the city can run it at no greater expense, the people would probably gladly have it become a public institution. But the city would be compelled to face the same condition that confronts the management, and devise ways and means of making the hospital self-supporting or practically so.

Any plan that will keep the hospital open as a charitable institution will be heartily applauded, but any plan that makes the institution a heavy expense to the tax payers will be as promptly condemned.

Good business judgment may demand the refusal of the offer, but humanity prompts its acceptance, and the council, to quote from a popular song, "stands between love and duty."

The people should not dianna the project with a wave of the hand, but think it over. When you, for instance, decide what should be done, inform your alderman of your decision. If all the citizens do this, the council can vote intelligently on the matter, and the judgment of the people will be executed.

Waupaca Post.—There was a time when Assemblyman Hall, of Dunn county, was believed to be in earnest in his advocacy of railroad reform legislation. Since his last foolish break, however, people are more satisfied than ever that he is a reformer like Hobbs Follette, for political capital only.

The hospital matter is not one sided. Think it over and give your alderman your ideas.

Captain Leiter, it seems, has been compelled to lighten his car.

Operators Will Close Mines.

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—The operators of Virden and the C. and A. mines, south of Springfield, will close their mines rather than pay 40 cents per ton for mining, under the decision of the state board of arbitration. The operators and miners of the subdistrict both made application to the state board for arbitration on the wage question. The only way for the operators to escape the payment of 40 cents per ton was by closing down their mines, and this they did. They hold that the payment of 40 cents in the subdistrict, owing to a close competition and discriminating freight rates, is an impossibility, without loss to them.

Big Deficiency Bill Reported.

Washington, June 16.—The general deficiency bill, carrying an aggregate of $224,032,223, was reported to the house Wednesday by the committee on appropriations. All but $18,205,026 is for war expenses and $8,070,872 of these ordinary deficiencies are for pensions. The bill is the largest deficiency bill ever presented to congress and the largest appropriation bill put through that body since the civil war, a special appropriation bill of upward of $700,000,000 enacted into law in 1863 eclipsing it.

Nicaragua Canal Feasible.

Washington, June 16.—Rear Admiral John G. Walker, president of the Nicaragua canal commission, before the senate committee on the Nicaragua canal, stated that, while the commission had not yet completed its work, from the examinations already made the plan for a canal along the proposed route was entirely feasible. He estimated the canal could be built for $125,000,000, and thought by modifying the present plans the necessity for one or more dams could be avoided.

Germany Ships at Canada.

Berlin, June 16.—The Reichsanzeiger (official) announces that from July 31 next Great Britain and her colonies, with the exception of Canada, will be granted by Germany the benefit of the "most favored nation" treatment in commercial exchanges. The exclusion of Canada from these benefits is regarded as a reprisal for Canada's action, which brought about the denunciation by Great Britain of the commercial treaties with Germany and Belgium.

Hobson Will Be Exchanged.

Madrid, June 16.—Gov. Gen. Blanco was authorized by the government to entertain proposals from the American government for an exchange of Lieut. Hobson and the other Merrimac prisoners for Spaniards now confined in American prisons.

Loan Will Be a Success.

Washington, June 16.—If there was ever any question about the success of the new 3 per cent war loan it has been set at rest by the way in which subscriptions are already beginning to come in at the treasury department. Talk to Lowell about furnaces.

In transmitting the report the president said: "I cordially renew my recommendation that a liberal appropriation be immediately granted."

DECLARE FOR ANNEXATION.

Measure Has Decisive Majority in the House.

SENATE TO ACT AT ONCE.

Newlands' Resolution for the Admission of Hawaii Passes House of Representatives by a Vote of 209 to 91—Fable Debt to Be Assumed.

Washington, June 16.—By a vote of 209 to 91 the house of representatives Wednesday adopted the Newlands resolutions, providing for the annexation of Hawaii. The debate, which was continued without interruption since Saturday, has been one of the most notable of this congress, the proposed annexation being considered of great commercial and strategic importance by its advocates, and being looked upon by its opponents as involving a radical departure from the long-established policy of the country and likely to be followed by the inauguration of a pronounced policy of colonization, the abandonment of the Monroe doctrine and participation in international wrangles. More than half a hundred members participated in the debate. From a party standpoint the result was awaited with the keenest interest. The republicans presented practically a unanimous support to the resolutions, but three republican members voting in opposition. In the democratic ranks the division upon the question was more marked, eighteen democratic members voting for annexation. The vote in support of the resolutions was made up of 179 republicans, eighteen democrats, eight populists and four fusionists; the vote against annexation comprised seventy-seven democrats, three republicans, seven populists and four fusionists.

The session began at 10 o'clock and the debate continued seven hours. Notable speeches were made by Messrs. Barry (dem., Ky.), W. A. Smith (rep., Mich.) and Hepburn (rep., Iowa) for and by Messrs. Johnson (rep. Ind.) and Williams (dem., Miss.) against the pending measure.

The resolutions adopted in a preamble relate the offer of the Hawaiian republic to cede all of its sovereignty and absolute title to the government and crown lands, and then by resolution accept the cession and declare the islands annexed. The resolutions provide for a commission of five, at least two of whom shall be resident Hawaiians, to recommend to congress such legislation as they may deem advisable. The public debt of Hawaii, not to exceed $4,000,000, is assumed. Chinese immigration is prohibited, all treaties with other powers are declared null, and it is provided that until congress shall provide for the government of the islands all civil, judicial and military powers now exercised by the officers of the existing government shall be exercised in such manner as the president shall direct, and he is given power to appoint persons to put in effect a provisional government for the islands.

The annexation resolution is expected to reach the senate from house today. The program of the friends of the measure is to have it referred to the committee on foreign relations as soon as received. A meeting of that committee will be held Friday morning and it is expected that a report will be promptly authorized, so that the resolution can be reported back to the senate on the same day. It is the purpose to ask for immediate consideration, but it is understood the opposition will seek to have the debate deferred until Monday of next week. The supporters are not disposed to make this concession, and it is possible that the first clash may come on this point.

Populists Meet in Omaha. Omaha, Neb., June 16.—The regular populist national committee, of which Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina is chairman, found a fight on its hands as soon as it began its session Wednesday. In many states there were ugly contests which had to be settled one way or another, particularly in Illinois, Iowa, Idaho, Ohio and Oregon. Senator Butler, explaining that he did not wish to take the responsibility of determining these contests, appointed a committee to hear and settle them. The committee will report today.

International Bank Bill. Washington, June 16.—The senate Wednesday resumed consideration of the International American bank bill. An amendment was accepted by the committee and adopted extending the privileges of the measure to all citizens of the United States instead of restricting them to those mentioned in the bill. When the senate adjourned consideration of the bill had not been concluded.

For 100,000 More Volunteers. Des Moines, Iowa, June 16.—A private dispatch was received here from Washington which says that the president is going to issue a call for 100,000 more men, and that Iowa will have two new regiments. Gen. Primo, who won in the Prime-Guest controversy, is banking on this to give him the promised colonelcy commission.

Victory for the Wisconsin Machine. Milwaukee, Wis., June 16.—The republican state central committee decided to hold the republican state convention at the exposition building in this city Aug. 17. A resolution to do away with proxies at the convention was voted down by a large majority, which was considered a victory for the machine.

CASH FOR THE WAR.

National Treasury Has Funds for All Expenses.

Washington, June 16.—The cash on hand in the treasury, which amounts to $189,000,000, will be re-enforced between this date and the end of the calendar year by returns from the Dingley tariff law and the recently enacted war revenue law to the extent of $310,000,000, according to expert estimates. That will give the secretary of the treasury nearly $500,000,000 in addition to the $200,000,000 resulting from the sale of the first issue of bonds, for which subscriptions have already been asked.

He will have in reserve authority to sell $200,000,000 more bonds and to borrow $100,000,000 on short time notes, making in all a round billion dollars that will be available for war and civil purposes between this date and the first day of December.

Against this overflowing exchequer congress will, before adjournment, have authorized war drafts to the aggregate amount of $400,000,000. Civil expenditures to Jan. 1 will foot up close to $200,000,000, making a total outgo of about $600,000,000.

This will leave Secretary Gage a margin of $400,000,000 to work on.

The secretary of war has sent to congress estimates for appropriations for the army up to Jan. 1 next, amounting to $13,200,000, as follows: Regular supplies, quartermaster's department, $3,000,000; army transportation, $10,000,000; contingencies of the army, $100,000; secret service $100,000.

The amount so far asked for on account of the war is approximately $53,000,000.

To Fix Indiana Republican Date. Indianapolis, June 16.—Chairman Hernley has called the republican state central committee to meet here June 24 to fix a date for the assembling of the state convention. Senator Turpin will preside over the democratic convention at its meeting next week.

Milwaukee Carnival Week.

Carnival week at Milwaukee, June 27 to July 3, will rival the Mardi Gras at New Orleans. Those having the celebration in charge believe that the Wisconsin festivities will even be more attractive than those of the far famed southern city. At New Orleans there are only three evening attractions. At Milwaukee there will be six days and six nights of endless festivities. The grand pageant, illustrating the history of Wisconsin, will consist of twenty floats. These floats are rapidly nearing completion and are said by the contractor, who has devoted his whole life to this business, to be the finest he has ever yet constructed. Low fares on all roads and boats will be given for Carnival week.

"I am now able to do my own work, thanks to your wonderful medicine. I was as near death I believe as I could be, so weak that my pulse scarcely beat and my heart had almost given out. I could not have stood it one week more, I am sure. I never thought I would be so grateful to any medicine."

perform their work with a minimum of fire. The hot fiery kitchen of the coal stove is not desirable at any time of the year, but in the summer its abominable. How it rolls its hot breath into every room in the house, and what a sweltering atmosphere is produced by the long kitchen chimney in all the rooms that it touches. ## BRAVE WORK OF MARINES.

Forty Spaniards Killed in a Skirmish.

THEIR POSITION DESTROYED.

Cubans Co-operate with the United States Forces and Behave Well—Gunboat Dolphin Aids in the Rout of the Enemy.

Guantanamo Bay, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 16.—The United States marines under Lieut.-Col. Robert W. Huntington made their first aggressive movement against the Spanish guerrillas Wednesday and completely routed the enemy.

The force of marines was under Capt. Elliott and the co-operating Cubans were under Col. Lahorra. The combined forces razed a Spanish camp about five miles from the American position, destroyed the only well in the vicinity and killed about forty Spaniards. One American marine was slightly wounded. Two Cubans were killed and four wounded.

It is impossible to estimate the number of Spanish engaged owing to their guerrilla methods of fighting, but it is believed there were at least 400.

The marines behaved splendidly, their marksmanship being excellent, even under the severe fire of the enemy.

The captured camp lies about five miles southeast of the rifle pits of the marines, and was an important base for the enemy, as it contained the only well within six or seven miles. Lieut.-Col. Huntington decided on the attack early in the day, and at about 8 o'clock the force started across the mountain. The march up and down the hillsides under the glaring tropical sun was a severe test of endurance for the marines, and before the battle ground was reached twenty-two men had received medical attention. All were able, however, to reach the position before the fighting ceased.

The marines were compelled to march in single file, following the mountain trail. Meanwhile the Cubans darted backward and forward, to right and left, on the scout. It was noon when from the hilltop the Americans caught sight of the Spanish camp lying on a ridge below them. It consisted of one large house—the officers' quarters—surrounded by numerous "shacks" and huts, all clustering about the precious well.

The Americans began a cautious advance and were within 200 yards of the enemy before the crack of a rifle from the Spanish lines announced that the Spaniards had discovered them.

The troops quickly moved into line of battle, with the Cubans on the left flank. The enemy's bullets were whirling viciously over the Americans, but the marines settled down to their work as unconcerned as though at target practice. Very few Spaniards were in sight. They were lying behind the huts and in the brush, but the puffs of smoke revealed their positions and enabled the Americans to do effective work. For twenty minutes both sides maintained a terrific fire. The Spanish shots were generally wild and spasmodic, while the Americans coolly fired away, aiming carefully and shooting to kill. For the most part the Americans' firing was done individually, but at times the officers would direct firing by squads, always with telling effect.

It was beginning to look as though a bayonet charge down the slope would be necessary to dislodge the enemy, when suddenly the latter began to break for the thicket a hundred yards further on. Little groups could be seen fleeing from the camp, separating, darting through the brush and zig-zagging to escape the bullets.

It was then the American fire became most deadly. Man after man could be seen to fall in a vain rush for shelter, and the fire from the Spanish became scattering and almost ceased.

Two Cubans lay dead and four wounded, and Private Walker of company D had to limp to the rear with a slight wound in his ankle.

The easy victory put the command in high spirits. The little black Cuban warriors waved their machetes and howled curses at the Spanish in savage fashion. Their firing had been wild throughout, but they displayed the utmost contempt for the Spanish bullets, apparently being absolutely without fear.

As the enemy began breaking from the camp the Dolphin, which lay out at sea, was signaled and began pitching shells toward the thicket for which the Spaniards were making. Meanwhile Lieut. Magill was seen coming with forty men as re-enforcements, and Capt. Mahoney was on the way with 100 more, but before either could reach the scene the trouble was over.

As the Spanish retreated the Americans moved slowly forward, firing as they went, and by the time the camp was reached the enemy had all got away, taking their wounded and probably many of their dead. Fifteen bodies were found scattered through the brush, but the Americans were unable to examine the spot where they had been most deadly. No time was lost in burning the buildings and filling the well with earth and stones. The Dolphin landed water and ammunition, as an attack was expected on the return march, but none was made.

TROOPS PROCEED SLOWLY.

Transports Are Not Yet Out of the Gulf.

SAMPSON IN READINESS.

Everything Arranged for the Prompt Disembarkation of the Soldiers When They Arrive Before Santiago—Insurgents Expected to Give Valuable Aid.

Washington, June 16.—Reports received at the war department indicate that the Santiago expedition is making slow speed toward its destination. The fleet is still in the gulf. The weather is cool for the season and the voyage promises to be a comfortable one to the troops. If no accidents occur and no storms are encountered the fleet is expected to appear off Santiago Saturday afternoon.

Owing to the preparations made by Admiral Sampson, the disembarkation will be attended with little difficulty. Guantanamo bay, forty miles to the eastward, is in readiness for the reception of the transports in case of rough weather. The great iron piers of the Juragua iron mines, between Guantanamo and Santiago, can be utilized for the landing of troops and guns and equipment by that part of the army that is to operate on the east side of Santiago. On the west side Gen. Jesus Rabi, the patriot, holds the town and river of Aserradores. He will cover the landing of troops anywhere between that point and the entrance of the harbor.

Admiral Sampson has steam launches and boats sufficient to empty the transports very rapidly where lighterage is necessary. The movement ashore promises to be very much more rapid and much less dangerous than was anticipated before the extent of the admiral's preparations was understood. He is very careful and conservative, and his latest reports, read by those who know him, make a deep impression regarding the desperate condition of the Spaniards. They prompt the feeling that Santiago is going to fall quickly. They indicate that the admiral has the prize almost within his grasp, and that if he chose to run some risk of loss he might force the harbor and take the fleet and city without waiting for the troops.

The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius and several torpedo boats have joined the admiral's fleet within two or three days, and if there is any special significance in the presence of the dynamite cruiser it means that the mines in the harbor are to be exploded and the entrance to the bay where Cervera's fleet is anchored is to be cleared for the American squadron.
